

Adult Behavioral Expectations

To Promote the Well-Being of Youth for Staff, Counselors, and Volunteers who work with the Indiana National Guard Kids Camp

“The youth of our military are entrusted to you”

Adult behavioral expectations give the staff, counselors, and volunteers the opportunity to reaffirm their commitment and dedication to the care of our younger guard family. When this statement is signed, it is a statement that our young will be treated with respect, dignity, and attention to individual needs. The Indiana National Guard Kids Camp has become a highly respected annual event that provides needed support to our military families.

In my role, I will:

- Conduct myself in a courteous, respectful manner, exhibit good sportsmanship, and demonstrate reasonable conflict management skills.
- Under no circumstances consume, allow, or be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs while at Kids AT Youth Camp.
- Recognize that verbal or physical abuse, failure to comply with equal opportunity and anti-discrimination laws, or committing criminal acts are not acceptable.
- Accept my responsibility to be a positive role model for youth.
- Accept supervision and support from appropriate leaders and staff.
- Participate in all required orientations and training.
- Make safety a priority in every event, operation, or project.
